

Allianz Rohstofffonds - A - EUR

Indirect equity investments in the metals and mining segment

Investment Objective

Allianz Rohstofffonds (feeder fund) invests at least 95% of its assets in Allianz Global Metals and Mining (master fund). This fund invests in the global equity market, primarily in the natural resources segment with the aim of attaining capital growth in the long-term. In effect, the greatest possible participation of the feeder fund in the master fund and its performance is sought.

- Currency losses possible
- Success of single security analysis and active management of master fund not guaranteed

FOR FUND DISTRIBUTORS AND PROFESSIONAL INVESTORS ONLY

- 1) Calculated at the net asset value, excl. front-end load, distributions reinvested. Calculation according to method as defined by BVI, the German Fund Companies Association. Any front-end loads reduce the capital employed and the performance.
- 2) Benchmark history: until 14/12/2021 EUROMONEY Global Mining Total Return Net (in EUR), until 31/12/2014 EUROMONEY GLOBAL MINING RETURN GROSS IN EUR, until 31/12/2011 MSCI WRLD/METALS & MINING TOTAL RETURN (NET) IN EUR, until 01/01/2006 BM dit-Rohstoffonds (MSCI Total Return (Net))
- 3) SFDR: EU Sustainable Finance Disclosure Regulation. Information accurate at time of publishing.
- 4) The Sharpe ratio states the relationship between the return generated by the fund and the investment risk. The fund's excess return versus the risk-free market rate is compared to volatility. Negative values are not meaningful.
- 5) Volatility measures the fluctuation range of the fund's performance over a specified period of time.
- 6) Measure of the proportion of fund assets that is invested differently from the benchmark.
- 7) The dividend yield corresponds to the expected dividend divided by the current price of the share, expressed as a percentage. (eDiv/share price) where: eDiv = product of the last dividend payment and the number of expected dividend payments per year (e.g. the expected dividend for a share with quarterly dividend payment corresponds to the dividend for the last quarter times four). The dividend yield depends both on the amount of the dividend and the current price of the share. Both these key variables may be subject to constant change. The dividend yield is only a snapshot based on the current amount of the dividend and the current share price; as a result, it is not suitable as an indicator of the future performance of an equity fund.
- 8) Allianz Rohstoffonds (feeder fund) invests at least 95% of its assets in Allianz Global Metals and Mining (master fund). The fund structure shows the asset breakdown at master fund level. The current cash position of the feeder fund is 0.70%.
- 9) This is for guidance only and not indicative of future allocation.
- 10) In addition to the fee for management of the Feeder Fund, fees and expenses are also charged for the shares of the Master Fund held by the Feeder Fund. The Master Fund's management company levies the following fees from the Feeder Fund, i.e. indirectly from its investors: All-in fee (0.45% p.a.) of share class F (EUR) of the Master Fund, Taxe d'abonnement (Luxembourg tax on the Master Fund's assets – 0.01% p.a.), Transaction costs, auditing costs and other expenses that may be charged to the Master Fund.
- 11) If the acquisition of Fund units is subject to a sales charge, up to 100% of such sales charge may be collected by the distributor; the exact amount shall be mentioned by the distributor as part of the investment advisory process. This also applies to any payment by the Management Company of an ongoing distribution fee from the all-in fee to the distributor. The all-in fee includes the expenses previously called management, administration and distribution fees.
- 12) TER generally: Total cost (except transaction costs) charged to the fund during the last financial year. TER for funds-of-funds: The costs incurred by the fund itself (except transaction costs). Since the fund held other investment units ("target funds") in the reporting period, further costs, charges and fees may have been incurred at the level of the target fund.
